191 Coonoongibber Creek Road, Brooloo

YOUR PRIVATE RAINFOREST ESCAPE AWAITS!

Are you searching for more than just a house?

Welcome to a place where nature whispers and time slows down.

Set on just over six acres, this property offers the perfect blend of peace, privacy, and natural beauty. Surrounded by dense green bushland and tall palms, it's a true sanctuary for anyone who values space and connection with nature.

Coonoongibber Creek follows the boundary of this the property before meeting Araucaria Creek, creating clear swimming holes and shady pockets for relaxing on warm days. Look out for the platypus in the water and listen to the birdlife in the trees. A Morton Bay Fig tree completes the setting, adding a sense of permanence and character to the landscape.

The home itself sits perfectly amongst its surroundings - an original block residence with a timeless, welcoming feel.

Inside, you'll find three bedrooms, a spacious bathroom and laundry, and a large country-style kitchen with freestanding gas cooker. There's a separate dining room and a generous lounge featuring a slow-combustion heater for winter and reverse-cycle air conditioning for the warmer months. Both the master bedroom and lounge open directly onto the wide covered veranda, where you can sit back and enjoy the tranquil rainforest views.

Character touches, such as timber features and stained-glass windows, add warmth and individuality while the practical layout makes the home ideal for relaxed everyday living or weekend retreats.

Outside, a large shed with single lock-up garage, double carport and extensive workshop space provides plenty of room for vehicles, tools, or hobbies. The land is mostly natural bush, offering privacy, while still giving you the opportunity to create gardens, walking tracks, or picnic areas beside the creek.

This property represents a rare opportunity to secure a peaceful lifestyle in a beautiful setting.
