PERFECT HOBBY FARM AT A REDUCED PRICE!

How do you hide nearly 2 acres behind a fence? Easy! Just plant a garden. You don't know what's on this 2-acre (7,938m²) block until you enter, and go for a wander.

The rendered brick home, set in very established gardens, is cute as ... Entry is via a front porch with a feature stone wall. This is also a nice little resting place, on a property with plenty of resting places.

You enter a fully tiled lounge room, semi-separated from the kitchen diner by the slow combustion heater. An extra sitting room on the opposite side has French door access both front and back. Old fashioned picture rails feature right through the home! The kitchen has a freestanding electric stove, plenty of cupboards and bench space and is separated from the dining room by a breakfast bar. The dining room has direct access to the north-facing side deck. The covered deck runs the full length of the house giving plenty of room to entertain or relax. There are 3 bedrooms, one with a built-in-robe, and a bathroom with bath, separate shower and separate toilet.

The nearly 2-acre block is quite long and divided into sections by either fences, trees & shrubs or a hedge. In these sections you will find:

- an above ground pool for those hot summer days,
- a shade house, veggie garden, compost bins & fruit trees for self-sufficiency,
- a brand new double garage & an old machinery shed, and
- a small paddock at the rear for your animals.
