SPACE IS THE KEY WORD!

At 63 Bryant Rd, 5 acres is just enough to give you the space, privacy & lifestyle you're searching for, while the house, set in established grounds, delivers the character & charm. It's a classic Queenslander, or period home ... and it's larger than most!

Externally, it's a weatherboard-clad house, partially screened from the road. Internally, you enter from the front stairs to an enclosed veranda/sleepout, very characteristic of Queenslanders, where verandas were enclosed to provide additional space.

Although the air-conditioned loungeroom is a great size, the hub of the home is the kitchen/dining room. This, together with the loungeroom, enclosed veranda and covered rear deck, provides more than enough space for entertaining or relaxation. The well-equipped kitchen has gas cooking, a dishwasher and a generous sized pantry. Classic period features including high ceilings, polished timber floors, period windows & VJ walls, are on display right through the home.

There are 3 dedicated bedrooms, 2 with built-in robes, but you could easily convert it to a 4-bedroom home. The bathroom has had a recent upgrade and now features a bath, separate shower and a separate toilet.

The rear deck has multiple access points, to/from the dining room, hallway & main bedroom as well as stairs towards the spa-pool. This north-facing deck overlooks the spa-pool & beyond. While there is parking space for 2 vehicles under the home, the 3-bay garage at the back looks after all workshop, storage & 2 additional vehicle parking bays including 1 high access bay. There is a paddock with a dam at the back and services include solar power, back to the
