FAMILY HOME IN TOTAL PRIVACY

Follow the driveway through the trees where you find the house, sitting in the sunshine in complete privacy.

This property is a mixture of bushland and cleared paddocks for horses, with a beautiful big dam, and with a combination of mature fruit trees and native bushes, attracts a wide range of birdlife.

The property has covered verandas on all sides. The front leads directly into the open planned kitchen and dining area. This room has tiled flooring and allows for a good-sized family dining table. The kitchen is retro and funky with its red benchtops and handles, has good cupboard storage & a huge fridge space, electric cooking facilities & a double pantry, and is separated from the dining room by a small breakfast bar.

There are two archways from the dining room. The first leads directly into the carpeted lounge room that also features sliding door access to the rear veranda, and the other into the formal entrance. The property has a formal front door along the back of the house, however with numerous sliding doors, including into the master bedroom, there are several entry points.

The hallway with 2 double linen cupboards takes you through to the four bedrooms, the bathroom with separate toilet and the full-sized laundry.

Outside, there is a covered entertainment area perfect for your dining table, located off the veranda on the northern corner. Picture yourself sitting here with a coffee each morning watching the sun come up through the trees.

There are two older style carport sheds for mowers and farm items, 3 good sized
