

8 Elizabeth Street, Imbil

3 BEDROOM TIMBER HOME – Close to Town & Secure Investment

This well-maintained timber home offers an excellent opportunity for investors or buyers looking for a solid property with reliable returns. Situated just a short distance from the town centre, the home provides easy access to shops, schools, medical facilities, and local amenities, while still enjoying the comfort and space of a residential setting.

The home features three generous bedrooms, a functional floor plan, and plenty of natural light throughout. With all town services connected, it's both convenient and low-maintenance, making it an attractive choice for tenants and future owners alike. The property has a long-term tenant already in place, ensuring a steady income stream from the moment you take ownership.

Whether you're expanding your investment portfolio, entering the property market, or simply searching for a secure home with potential, this property represents great value. With timber construction adding charm and character, and the close-to-town location providing ongoing appeal, it's an opportunity not to be missed.
