This brightly painted home is located at the entrance to Kenilworth village and is hidden from the street by mature trees and established gardens.

The front stairs of the two storey home deliver you to a covered veranda on the top level.

Inside, the living area is divided between a central lounge room, a long dining room, an eat-in style kitchen and a cute reading room. The home features high ceilings and polished timber floors.

The kitchen has electric cooking facilities and plenty of storage including a pantry. There are 2 upstairs bedrooms, both with built in robes and one bathroom with a separate toilet.

Internal stairs lead to the lower level. What was an artists gallery could now be a large bedroom, plus two other bedrooms, together with a kitchenette and full bathroom facilities, make this level self contained.

A repurposed industrial shed at the rear of the block helps to create a courtyard that includes a covered area for morning coffee and a BBQ shed. The shed is an amazing he/she cave and the perfect family function venue. This quirky space has room for everything from a pool table and bar to lounges and chandeliers. There is plenty of storage room and under cover parking for at least 2 large vehicles.
